

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

An Act to enable His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales to grant Leases of certain Lands and Premises called Prince's Meadows, in the Parish of Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, Parcel of His said Royal Highness's Duchy of Cornevall, for the Purpose of building thereon.

[12th March 1810.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Forty ninth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An All for building 49 G. 3. c. exci. a Bridge over The River Thames, from the Precina of the Savoy, or near thereunto, in the County of Middlesex, to the opposite Shore, and for making convenient Roads and Avenues to communicate therewith 'in the Goody of Surrey, the Company of Proprietors of the faid B 2 'intended intended Bridge are authorized to set out and make a Road from the faid Bridge, to or near to a certain Place called the Obelifk, in Saint George's Fields, in the Parish of Saint George's Southwark, in the faid County of Surrey; and also to set out and make another Road, from a certain Street called Stamford-street, in the Parish of Christ Church, in the said County of Surrey, into the said first e mentioned Road; and the faid Company of Proprietors are further authorized to purchase a certain Slip, or Piece of Land, which in the making and constructing of the said tirst mentioned Road, will intervene between such Road and the Estate and Premises of 'His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, as Duke of Cornwall, · called Prince's Meadows, in the Parish of Saint Mary Lambeth, in the County of Surrey, and to assign, transfer and set over the ' said Slip or Piece of Land unto His said Royal Highness, His · Heirs and Successfors, Dukes of Cornwall, in exchange for such Por-• tion of Land, Parcel of the said Premises, called Prince's Meadows, s as shall be requisite for the making and constructing of the said before mentioned Roads, in their Course through and over certain Parts of the said Premises called Prince's Meadows: And whereas the crecting of the faid intended Bridge, to be called the Strand · Bridge, and the making and constructing of the said intended · Roads, together with the before mentioned Exchange of Land for s authorized as aforefaid, will tend greatly to the Improvement of the I faid Premises called Prince's Meadows, in connection with all the adjoining Property, if Encouragement shall be given for the Erection of good and substantial Dwelling Houses and other Buildings, in lieu of the present Houses, most of which are constructed chiefly of Wood, and are in a ruinous State, producing, with the · Remainder of the said Premises, a present gross Rental to the Les-· fees of about Three thousand two hundred Pounds only per annum; and also for the Construction of other respectable Buildings in the · Line of the faid intended Roads, and the making of other Roads or Streets to communicate with the before mentioned intended Roads; all which might be effected, if His faid Royal Highness was empowered to grant Leases of the said Premises, upon such 'Terms as might be for the mutual Benefit of His faid Royal · Highness and His Successors: And whereas the said Premises * called Prince's Meadows, contain altogether, by Admeasurement, 'Twenty eight Acres, Three Roods, and Ten Perches of Land, or thereabout, and comprize within the Limits thereof a Range of Wharfs, with Two Bargehouses, altogether abutting upon the "River Thames, to the Extent of One thousand two hundred and fifty two Feet, or thereabout, behind which Wharfs and Bargehouses there is a narrow Road or Street, called the Narrow Wall, the irregular, and winding Course whereof precludes several of the 'faid Wharfs from occupying a sufficient Space in Depth from the · faid River, but which might be remedied, and the Public be more conveniently accommodated, by the making and constructing of another Road or Street across the said Premises called Prince's ' Meadows, in lieu of, and somewhat further removed from the faid 'River, than the before mentioned Road or Street called the Narrow' " Wall, in which the present Buildings are for the most Part con-"structed of Wood, and otherwise are of a very inferior Description, and some of them in a very ruinous State, and the Remainder of f the

the said Premises consists principally of Meadow or Pasture Land and Garden Ground, there being only a small Portion thereof covered with Buildings: And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty third Year of the Reign of His present Ma. 32 G. 3. c. 78. 'jesty, intituled, An Att to enable His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales to make Leases, Copies and Grants of Offices, Lands und 'Hereditaments, Parcel of His faid Royal Highness's Duchy of Corn-'wall, or annexed to the same; and for the other Purposes therein men-* tioned; His faid Royal Highness, in addition to the ordinary Powers thereby vested in His said Royal Highness, of making Leases and Grants for the Term of Thirty one Years, or for Terms of Years determinable upon Three Lives, is further empowered to make Leases and Grants of any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Parcel of the Possessions of the said Duchy of Cornwall, or annex-'ed to the same, for any Term of Years not exceeding the Term of 'Ninety nine Years, expressly for the Purpose of improving the same, by erecting substantial Buildings thereon, or for the Purpose of im-'proving Waste Lands by Cultivation or otherwise; provided that 'upon all fuch Leafes or Grants so to be made for Terms ex-'ceeding Thirty one Years, or exceeding the usual Term determin-'able upon Three Lives, improved Annual Ground Rents should be 'reserved, payable to His said Royal Highness, or to such as should have the Inheritance or other Estate of the said Duchy; and that 'in all fuch Cases no Fine or other Consideration should be taken by 'His said Royal Highness, further or other than the improved An-'nual Ground Rents so directed to be reserved as aforesaid: And 'whereas the said before recited Provision against the taking of Fines in all Cases of Leases or Grants to be made by His said Royal Highness for Terms exceeding Thirty one Years, or exceeding the 'ulual Term determinable upon Three Lives, was not intended to 'deprive His Royal Highness of the accustomed Benefit of Fines to be received, in the ordinary Course of granting Renewals in like Manner as such Fines might now be received by His said Royal 'Highness, in respect to the said Premises called Prince's Meadows, by confining the future Leafes or Grants thereof to fuch Terms 'of Years as, with the existing Terms therein, would not exceed the 'ordinary Period of Thirty one Years, but which Period is of a Duration too limited to afford sufficient Encouragement for the ferecting of any substantial Buildings, whilst the continuing so to 'grant the said Premises for short Terms of Years will not only have the Effect of excluding them from the Improvement whereof 'they are from Situation susceptible, but may at the same time occasion the said Premises to remain an Interruption to any general Plan for the Improvement of the Neighbourhood, which at present 'flands so much in Need thereof: And whereas it would not be ad-'viscable, under the Circumstances before mentioned, to make any 'immediate Leases or Grants of the said Premises called Prince's 'Meadows, for such Term only as, with the existing Term or Terms therein, would fill up the same to the ordinary Period of Thirty one years, more especially as the said Premises could not be made 'to produce, under a Lease or Leases to be granted for such limit-'ed Term of Years, a greater Income than the Sum of Four thou-'land two hundred Pounds Yearly, clear of all Ont-goings, whilk 'under a Lease or Leases to be granted for extending the Term to ' Ninety B 3
